

Summary of Benefits for Allied Health Professionals

Plan Year: 2012 – 2013

The University of Virginia Physicians Group compares benefits and other aspects of the compensation package with those offered by other academic and healthcare organizations. We have found that these aspects of our total compensation package continue to meet or exceed what peer institutions provide, and we are committed to ongoing improvements. Whether it's planning for your future or helping the University of Virginia health system advance its mission, UPG will continue to provide you with benefits and programs that enhance the value of your total compensation.

Acronyms: EE = employee; ER = employer; HPW = hours per week; Ch = Child; Sp = Spouse; Fam=Family
